Unit
FYR Fighter

UNIT LEADERSHIP DUTIES

- Attend unit leader roundup training at your district's program kickoff in August.
- Coordinate the selection of the roundup date with your unit, district roundup cohair and school
- Identify existing leadership and leadership needs in your unit. Communicate this information to the roundup coordinator and unit commissioner.
- Identify returning unit members and den assignments. Communicate this information to the roundup coordinator.
- Recruit enough unit leaders to help with set up, decorations, displays, refreshments, etc.
- Organize phone call reminders about roundup to parents of all youth who completed an interest survey. Make these calls the evening before the roundup
- Provide interesting displays of activities your unit has done for the round-up pre-opening,
- Encourage all unit members to wear their uniforms to school the day of the roundup.
- Follow up with all new leaders and boys to make them feel welcome and a part of your unit.
- Arrange for "Fast Start" training the week following the roundup for all new leaders, and invite them to attend an upcoming basic training.

For all who are interested in finding out what is new with Fall Youth Recruitment (FYR). We would like at least one person to attend from every unit.

Please bring your unit's plan on how you are going to recruit boys this fall.

Come prepared with your recruitment night's date, time, location, and contact information.

We would like to have all of your flyer requests filled out that night.
