

BALOO

BASIC ADULT LEADER OUTDOOR ORIENTATION

Saturday April 24, 2010
RUM RIVER SCOUT CAMP

8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

What is BALOO? It is a one-day training course in basic outdoor camping in accordance with BSA policy. This course is designed for fun and introduces new leaders and parents to preparing for pack overnights.

The BALOO program covers:

- Aims and purposes of the Cub Scout outdoor program (BSA Policy)
- Planning an Overnight
- Health and Safety
- Campfire Programs
- Cooking
- First Aid and Sanitation
- Nature hikes and games
- Stoves, lanterns and fire safety

Who should attend? All interested leaders and parents are invited.

In order for Packs to go camping, BSA policy requires one adult on the outing to have completed BALOO.

When: Saturday April 24, 2010 8:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m.

Where: Rum River Scout Camp

Cost: $21.50 – Includes lunch, and program materials. An Early Bird Discount of $10.00 will be applied to all registrations received by September 21, 2009.
