1. Attend Webelos Den Leader training before you start your program.
2. In the spring while your scouts are Bears, talk to the current Webelos leaders for ideas, suggestions, and advice.
3. Start your program in May or June for fourth grade Webelos to get all of them to Arrow of Light and have opportunities to try every activity badge.
4. Plan ahead - make a schedule for the next 20 months, which activity badge for each month.
5. Remember the 5th grade program ends in February - they transition to Boy Scouts in March.
6. Share the load - have a sign-up sheet so every parent can lead one or two activity badges.
7. Have a Parent Meeting at the start of the program to explain differences between Cub Scouts, Webelos, and Boy Scouts and what you expect of them.
8. From the very start of the program, expect the boys to become Boy Scouts. Never say 'if', always say 'when' and keep them looking forward to being in a troop.
9. Plan outdoor badges like Naturalist and Outdoorsman to fall in prime outside seasons. Artist, Family Member, .. can be done more easily indoors.
10. It is important that boys experience camping before joining Boy Scouts.
11. Start early to get boys ready for camping. Have backyard campouts.
12. A parent must be with a Webelos scout on all campouts, but the scouts can do all the work.
13. Keep the program going during the summer between 4th and 5th grade.
14. Fun summer activities like backyard campouts or campfires, hikes, swimming will give scouts a good taste of what to expect in Boy Scouts.
15. Encourage scouts to attend Webelos Camp before 4th and 5th grades.
16. Help scouts create duty rosters and menus for campouts. Healthy meals during Boy Scout camping are one of the bigger challenges so making the habits now is good.
17. Plan a service project for school, church, or community each summer.
18. Start presenting the requirements for 'joining Boy Scouts' early in the program and continually until they finish.
19. Keep your program outdoors as much as possible - a little rain or snow won't kill you.
20. Employ experts to present skills for more excitement and value, for example a retired Forest Ranger for Forester or Paramedic for Readyman.
21. Using a trained Den Chief from a local troop gives the scouts great exposure to what a Boy Scout is - get one!
22. Attend the Roundtable meetings to pick up information and ideas from others.
23. Meet the Scoutmasters of local troops. Arrange some visits for your scouts to see the Boy Scouts in action.
24. Work together on requirements to earn the Webelos badge. Try to have all scouts earn it and receive it at one pack ceremony.
25. After reaching the Webelos badge, transition to individual progress. Each scout is responsible for completing a badge, not all together as a den.
26. Make the scouts more and more responsible for the program, from leading games, to leading entire meetings, to planning the upcoming month's outings. As Boy Scouts, they will plan and execute their entire program.

27. Become a Patrol rather than a Den once everyone earns their Webelos badge. This is a good time to transfer to tan uniforms. The patrol also chooses a patrol name, emblem patch, patrol yell, and makes a patrol flag. These are all things they'll do in Boy Scouts too.
28. Proper insignia placement on the tan uniform is important - it will carry over to Boy Scouts.
29. Present EVERY activity badge. Get another adult to lead those that require different skills than what you have.
30. Offer a hike at least every other month.
31. Teach how to safely camp, and have the scouts CAMP often. Healthy, tasty, hot food is critical to success in scouting.
32. Teach how to safely cook, and have the scouts COOK often. Healthy, tasty, hot food is critical to success in scouting.
33. Teach how to safely use knives, and have the scouts USE them often. Every scout should have his Whittling Chip card.
34. Teach how to safely build fires, and have the scouts BUILD them often. A scout should build all campfires and you should have many fire-building contests.
35. Encourage inactive parents to participate. A successful scout needs the support of his parents.
36. Buy a Boy Scout Handbook for your reference, and to make your Webelos drool.
37. Ask a Boy Scout troop representative (scout and adult) to come to your den and tell you all about Boy Scouts.
38. Understand, believe in, and always use the Guide to Safe Scouting - always.
39. Work with your Cubmaster to ensure a good AOL ceremony with Order of the Arrow participants.
40. Know which troops your scouts are going to so the Scoutmaster can be at the ceremony.
